The Story of Uncle Tom's Cabin

Uncle Tom's Cabin tells the story of Uncle Tom, a pious and long-suffering slave who is sold from his Kentucky home to a cruel plantation in Louisiana. Along the way, he meets a variety of other slaves, each with their own unique story to tell. There is Eliza, a young woman who escapes to freedom with her child; George Harris, a skilled carpenter who is determined to buy his freedom; and Topsy, a mischievous young girl who is eventually redeemed by the love of a kind Quaker woman.

Through the lives of these characters, Stowe exposes the brutality and inhumanity of slavery. She shows how slaves are treated as property, bought and sold like animals. She also shows how slavery destroys families and communities. Uncle Tom's Cabin is a powerful indictment of slavery, and it helped to change the way that many Americans thought about the institution.
