When I was 14, I came out to my mom as transgender. She was shocked and didn't know how to react. But she loved me unconditionally, and she wanted me to be happy.

With my mom's support, I started transitioning to female. I started taking hormones, and I had surgery to change my gender.

The journey wasn't easy, but it was worth it. I am finally living my life as my true self, and I am happier than I have ever been.

I wrote this book to share my story with others who are struggling with gender dysphoria. I want you to know that you are not alone, and that there is hope.

You can transition to the gender you were meant to be. You can live a happy and fulfilling life as your true self.
