Nestled amidst the bustling streets of Kobe City, Rose Suma Rikyu Park emerges as a sanctuary of tranquility and floral enchantment. With its meticulously manicured gardens, vibrant blooms, and captivating history, this urban oasis invites visitors to immerse themselves in a world of beauty and serenity.

The park's centerpiece is its sprawling rose garden, home to an astonishing collection of over 6,000 rose bushes representing 500 varieties. From classic hybrid teas to fragrant climbers, each rose cultivar paints the landscape with a vibrant canvas of colors and textures.

A Stroll Through History

Rose Suma Rikyu Park is not merely a showcase of floral beauty but also a testament to Kobe City's rich cultural heritage. The park's origins can be traced back to the 17th century when it served as a villa for a wealthy merchant. Over the years, it has undergone several transformations, reflecting the changing tastes and architectural styles of its time.

Today, the park boasts an eclectic mix of traditional Japanese architecture, including a teahouse and a pond garden, alongside modern structures such as a rose museum and an observation tower. This harmonious blend of old and new creates a captivating environment that transports visitors to different eras.

A Symphony of Fragrances

Beyond the rose garden, Rose Suma Rikyu Park holds a secret gem - its scented garden. This fragrant haven features a diverse collection of aromatic plants, including lavender, jasmine, and herbs. As visitors meander through the garden, they are enveloped in a symphony of scents that evoke memories and awaken the senses.

The scented garden is a testament to the park's commitment to providing a holistic experience for its visitors. It offers a place to pause, reflect, and connect with nature on a deeper level.

A Place for All Seasons

While the park's roses are undeniably its stars, Rose Suma Rikyu Park remains a captivating destination throughout the year. In spring, cherry blossoms paint the landscape in delicate shades of pink, while summer brings a vibrant display of hydrangeas.

During autumn, the park transforms into a tapestry of fiery hues as the leaves of maple trees turn brilliant shades of red, orange, and yellow. Winter brings its own charm with snow-covered landscapes that create a serene atmosphere perfect for quiet contemplation.

A Culinary Delight

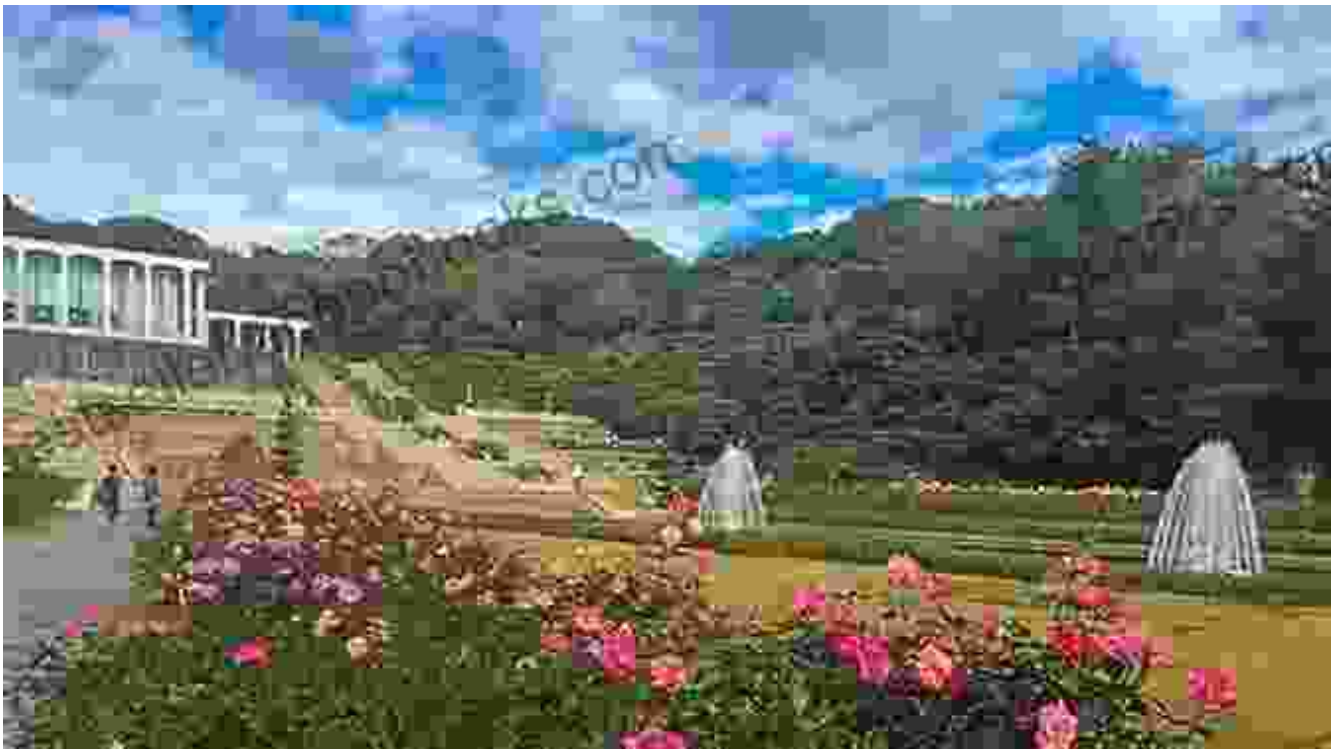

No visit to Rose Suma Rikyu Park is complete without savoring the exquisite cuisine offered at the park's restaurant. Overlooking the serene pond garden, the restaurant serves authentic Japanese dishes prepared with fresh, seasonal ingredients.

From delicate tempura to flavorful sashimi, each dish showcases the culinary artistry of Kobe City. Diners can enjoy their meal while immersing themselves in the park's tranquil ambiance.

Plan Your Visit

Rose Suma Rikyu Park is conveniently located in the Suma district of Kobe City, just a short walk from Sumaura Park Station. The park is open daily from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM, with extended hours during peak season.
