Awarewolf: A Parody with a Bite

Step into the realm of the unexpected with "Awarewolf," a witty and subversive parody of the classic werewolf tale. Birzer's playful pen transforms the legendary creature into a symbol of our own inner struggles and societal anxieties. Experience the thrill of a supernatural encounter as the werewolf roams the streets, leaving a trail of laughter and introspection in its wake.

We are a different breed than the show dogs;

Not groomed to perfection via a fatuous kennel of standards,

Not the lap-slaves of those who fear solitude and seek rewards;

We are feral, lone-wolves, in need of no virulent pack.

We did not enter this world to to be rounded up and cuffed.

We are the forest dwellers, the winged hearts, the buoyantly floating minds.

We are magic in a dark room.

One spark and fire erupts, leaving diamonds where once lived coal;

Crhymes Against Humanity: A Satirical Masterpiece

Unleash your inner rebel with "Crhymes Against Humanity," a collection of poems that takes aim at the ridiculousness and hypocrisy of modern life. Through clever wordplay and biting humor, Birzer skewers everything from political correctness and consumerism to social media addiction and the cult of celebrity. Prepare to laugh out loud as you witness humanity's foibles laid bare.

Excerpt –

'This famous wicked little tale
Should never have been put on sale
It is a mystery to me
Why loving parents cannot see
That this is actually a book
About a brazen little crook...'

'...Now just imagine how you'd feel
If you had cooked a lovely meal,
Delicious porridge, steaming hot,
Fresh coffee in the coffee pot;
With maybe toast and marmalade,
The table beautifully laid.
One place for you and one for dad,
Another for your little lad.
Then dad cries, 'Golly-gosh! Gee whizz!
'Oh cripes! How hot this porridge is!
'Let's take a walk along the street

'Until it's cool enough to eat.'
He adds, 'An early morning stroll
Is good for people on the whole.
'It makes your appetite improve
'It also helps your bowels move.'
No proper wife would dare to question
Such a sensible suggestion,
Above all not at breakfast-time
When men are seldom at their prime.
No sooner are you down the road
Than Goldilocks, that little toad

That nosey thieving little louse,
Comes sneaking in your empty house....'

'...(Here comes the next catastrophe.)
Most educated people choose
To rid themselves of socks and shoes
Before they clamber into bed.
But Goldie didn't give a shred.
Her filthy shoes were thick with grime,
And mud and mush and slush and slime.
Worse still, upon the heel of one'

Was something that a dog had done.
I say once more, what would you think
If all this horrid dirt and stink
Was smeared upon your eiderdown?
By this revolting little clown?
